In the present study the armored scale insect species being harmful on parks and ornamental plants were determined in Isparta province and its around between 2010 and 2011 years. The samples was taken in parks of manucipality, way edges, house gardens, picnic areas, groves, school gardens, cemeteries, botanical parks, university campus and animal zoo and were made their preparations in laboratory, taken photos and were identified.

As a results of recognizing, 11 species were determined belonging to Diaspididae family. These species are Aspidiotus hedericola Leonardi, Carulaspis minima (Signoret), Lepidosaphes ulmi (L.), Leucaspis pini (Hartig), Leucaspis pusilla Löw, Lineaspis striata (Newstead), Dynaspidiotus abieticola (Koronéos), Parlatoria oleae (Colvée), Targionia vitis (Signoret), Torosaspis cedricola (Balachowsky & Alkan) and Unaspis euonymi (Comstock) in this study.